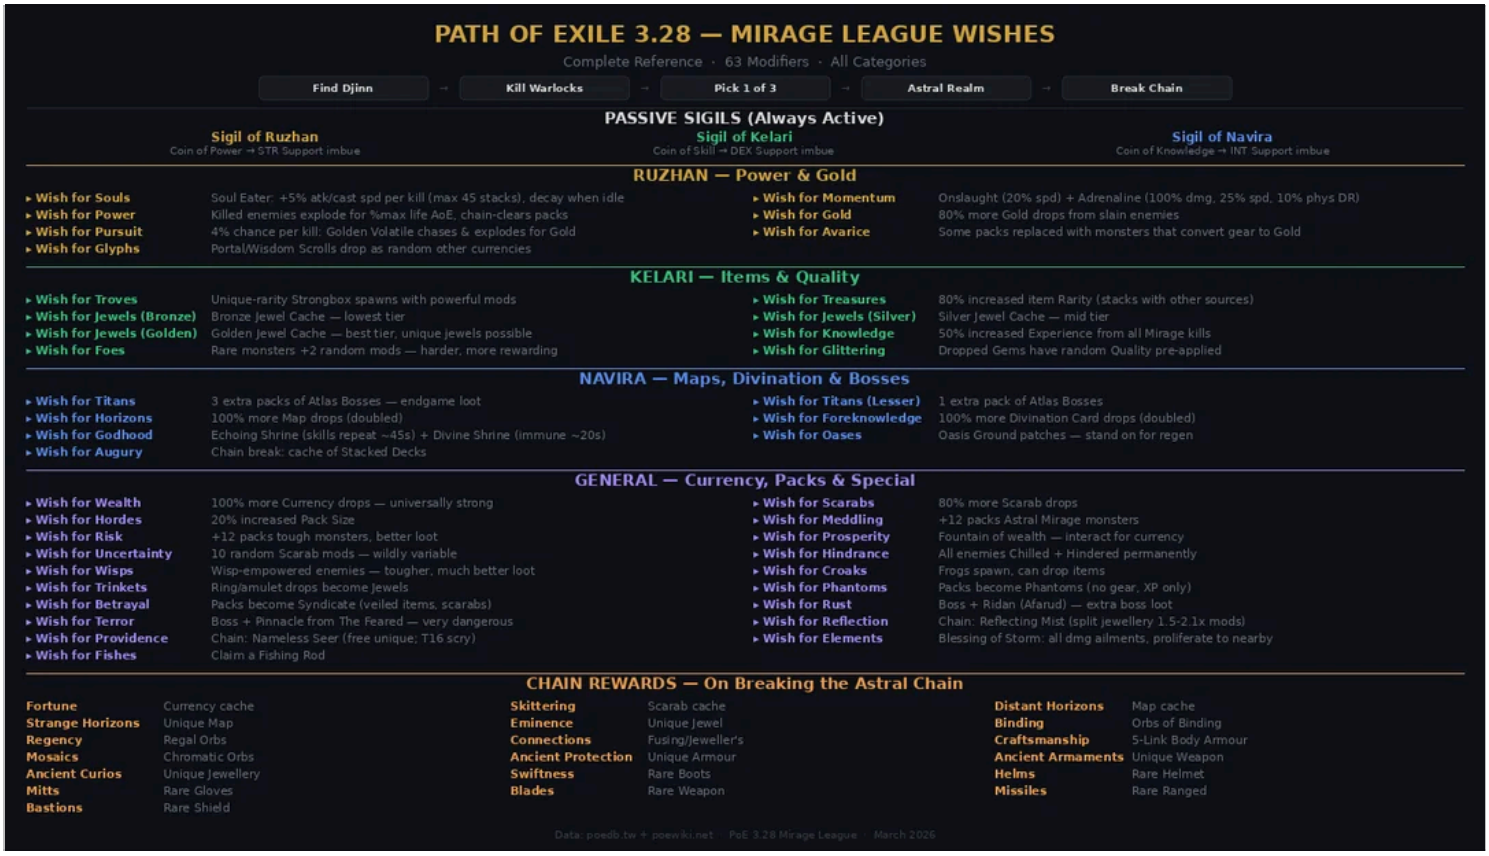
[Information] Mirage Cheatsheet Infographic

Information



I challenged Perplexity with a "deep research" project: "research since friday afternoon what the new mirage modifiers do in 3.28 for entering a mirage"

This is what it came up with. Maybe it's helpful, what do you think?

This isn't supposed to be a referendum on AI btw, this is about did it produce something useful for our community for Mirage?

Cheers, it's making for some really fun big boom expeditions lol

The "phantoms" means no equipment drops, only currency, maps, contracts etc. Way better than "100% more currency" and a nice homage to Diablo 2

SpongiiEUW • 2d ago

Basically ethereal allflame?

Fountain of wealth is a fountain that releases many gold volatiles, don't think it drops any currency.

Andthenwedoubleit • 2d ago

It's definitely gold. Released volatiles and gave a pile of gold besides. No currency

Normal-Cranberry-800 • 2d ago

Where even is it? I've gone in twice and I've never seen it

I've seen about 10 of them. They normally spawn at the very edges of a mirage zone. Maybe once was it on the center of a map

Chinlc • 2d ago

Gotta touch the volatile for gold to drop too

Holligan • 2d ago

But what about the frogs... surely there is something special about the frogs...

Visually they seem to be the same frogs from the Allflame Ember of Frogs from Necropolis, if so they just don't attack and have less quant than normal monsters.

But back when Prophecy was a thing there was a prophecy that added frogs which I believe actually had a small quant bonus, could be the same frogs too idk.

I was happy to see terror, until I realized I had a boss surrounded by ghosts and they all picked the elder that spawned, in a 3x3m boss room. Oh and destructive play ontop.

I have done feared without a death... I lost 60% exp that map

I got Cortex alongside super Innocence in theatre memory strand map. I'm glad the Innocence guy isn't in feared cause damn that mofo got hands...

hoodedcamera • 2d ago

This happened to me too was doing the memory tears and they all jumped into the fire guy in the theater of lies map. I lost all my portals XD

> 100% more Currency drops - universally strong

That "universally strong" description should be replaced with "100% more of 0 is still 0"

Jonken90 • 2d ago

As someone who just got to maps, what's the whole deal with mirages? Do I progress a meta quest while selecting which kind of mirage to enter?

Scathee • 2d ago

Nope, the mirage just creates a replica of the map that's within the mirage zone. Any league mechs in there are duplicated, with most having special rewards exclusive to the mirage. There is no meta progression, and you access the boss via a fragment dropped by a unique monster outside of the mirage.

dadghar • 2d ago

Can someone explain how do I get maps with that enchant that covers whole map in mirage? Is it map boss only drop? I got few in a bank, but don't remember how I got them

APonly • 2d ago

I got one from a strongbox inside of a mirage. Also same deal but with a heist contract.

Yirthos_Gix • 2d ago

I think its from a map boss drop that is cloned and killed in a Mirage
